

Reporting Committee: Political and Social Action

Committee Chair/Co-Chair: Karen Lawrence-Webster and Rhonda Butler

May 2018 Report

- I. The Political and Social Action Committee continues to encourage African American women in Saginaw County to run for public office and/or obtain appointments to boards and commissions. The following African American will appear on the November ballot:
- Lisa Coney (AKA) – Precinct Delegate
 - Lisa Ingram (DST) – Precinct Delegate
 - Karen Lawrence-Webster (DST) – Precinct Delegate
 - Felicia Peters (DST) – Precinct Delegate
 - Ceylon Williams- Bettis (AKA) – Precinct Delegate

Janice Moore (AKA) is strongly considering running for Delta College Board of Trustee

- II. The committee will host a May Week activity – The PhD “N” Me. Saginaw area female members of the Panhellenic Council have been invited to be our round table discussion leaders. We’ve asked them to share their strategies and challenges in pursuit of the Philosophy of Doctorate Degree. The discussion will take place on Thursday, May 17, 2018, 6 p.m. at the Delta College Ricker Center. The following PhDs have accepted our invitation: Fenobia Dallas, Tierra Tivis, Ericka Taylor, Ava Lewis and Jones
- III. High School Diploma in one hand and Voter Registration Card in the other hand – we will give voter registration cards to Saginaw High, Arthur Hill and Bridgeport graduates.
- IV. Blood Drive with Omega Psi Phi Fraternity – the 2018/2019 committee will lead the charge on this partnership.
- V. NAACP Monthly Community Meeting – Sunday, May 6, 2018, 3 p.m., - “Gerrymandering”

Is a formal motion needed? Yes NO

Formal Motion to the Chapter (state the motion below, only when presenting a formal motion for the Chapter consideration at the upcoming Chapter Meeting)